UM ENGLISH PROFESSOR TO PRESENT
READINGS FROM 'THE LADY IN KICKING
HORSE RESERVOIR'

MISSOULA--

Richard Hugo, University of Montana professor of English and director of the creative writing program, will present readings from his recent book, "The Lady in Kicking Horse Reservoir," at 7:30 p.m. Friday (April 13) in rooms 360 B-E of the University Center Montana Rooms.

Hugo's fourth book of poetry, published by the Norton Publishing Co., contains four sections of poems, the first and last dealing with Montana and its peoples.

Some of the poems included in the book are: "Camas Prairie School," "Hot Springs," "Ovando," "Dixon," "The Only Bar in Dixon," "Missoula Softball Tournament," "The Milltown Union Bar" and "Degrees of Gray in Philipsburg."

The program, sponsored by the UM Department of English and the UM literature club, is open to the public without charge.
